JUNE WEEK DRAWS TWO ORATORS WIN AT WEST POINT CROWDS NEW YORK UNIVERSITY

Graduation Ceremonies Under Way at the Military Academy.

ANNUAL REVIEW IS HELD

West Point, N. Y., June 7.—Real summer weather to-day greeted the cadets and their many relatives and friends who are here for the "June week" exercises, which began yesterday with the baccalaureate sermon by Chaplain Silver and were continued this afternoon when the first of the military drills took place.

The review of the battalion by the superintendent, Col. Clarence P. Townsley, and his staff was held on the grass plain at 4 o'clock, the battalion of cadets in full dress, with white duck trousers, being under command of Lieut.—Col. Morofital and the superintendent of the duck trousers, being under command of Lieut.—Col. Morofital and the superintendent of the duck trousers, being under command of Lieut.—Col. Shaw, Major Timberlake and Captains Carter and Estes. After the review a reception to the cadets of the graduating class was held on the lawn of the superintendent's quarters.

Carlier trials.

During the time taken for the decision of the judges Prof. Daniel Herring presented the keys to the new members of the Phi Beta Kappa Society.

Prof. Herring said that this society was unique in its standards. That the ordinary college fraternity stood for good fellowship, not good scholarship, which was the aim of this organization. He said, however, that all good scholars were not admitted to membership. A

Several class reunions are on the schedule for the week. The old graduates are to be quartered in barracks where they will live as much of their cadet life over again as is practicable, getting up at reveille and taking their meals in the mess hall with the battalion.

Michigan. Because of the long journey to Michigan it was decided to send the key to New York. Prof. T. W. Edmonson was the other honorary member welcomed.

The following men from the 1915 class received keys: W. L. Wright, C. Noxon, C. Apman, A. Lewin, B. Saul and U. Marra.
